Sunday,
Sept. 23!

FAQS

What's this for? - We're raising money for UUCBG and also gathering material for our grounds. The bricks will form a garden path, and the tiles will be installed on the wall of the meditation garden this fall.

Can I have a brick or a tile to keep? Absolutely! You can order engraved bricks and tiles for your own home. You can also get two identical and leave one at UUCBG. There are also 4"x4" replica tiles available for $15.

Are other colors available? – No, sorry. The gray works better with our buildings than brick red or sand beige.

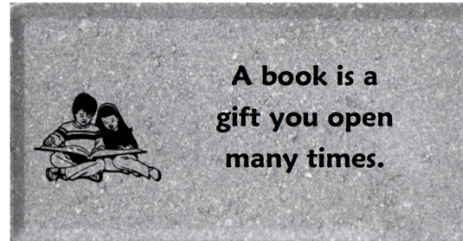

How many images can I choose from? The company provides several hundred, and you can also upload your own. Fine detail may not show up on brick.

Will Memorial Tiles be available in the future? Yes, though small orders don't get the bulk discount, so if we order fewer than five, they will cost more.

When will the bricks and tiles arrive? They should be here before November.

How do I order? You can order and pay online, or you can fill out a form and pay by check or cash at the church office.
